2019-2020 Memorial and Honor Gifts

A memorial gift or a gift in honor of someone is an appropriate way to recognize a special Deltasig, while at the same time making an impact on Delta Sigma Pi's future.

A memorial gift is an appropriate way to recognize someone's life and accomplishments. Donations may be made in any amount. Once received, a personalized note will be sent in the donor's name to the honoree or family member notifying them of this kind gesture. A memorial gift allows a donor to pay tribute to a departed member, friend, parent or son. Memorial contributions are often made in lieu of flowers or sympathy cards.

An honorary gift is an appropriate way to recognize someone's life and accomplishments. Donations may be made in any amount. Once received, a personalized note will be sent in the donor's name to the honoree or family member notifying them of this kind gesture. An honorary gift allows a donor to commemorate a member, friend, parent or child on special occasions by making a gift in their name. Honorary contributions can be made to celebrate a birthday, anniversary, retirement, holiday, award, volunteer service or any other special occasion.
